The Solent Safety Award

The Solent Safety Award, is awarded to projects with the aim of promoting safety awareness, occupational health and environmental issues both to the young and those shortly to join industry or commerce as well as those already working in the field of health and safety.

Projects could contain original safety ideas or effective health, safety and environmental systems, which can or have been developed and used by individuals or organisations. Participants may also submit entries which demonstrate methods of accident prevention, safety promotion, or education and training schemes. Such entries should demonstrate a basic understanding of hazard and risk and how they could be managed.

Previous winners include:

“Playing it Safe at Park” Video Park Community School

“Increasing Involvement in Health and Safety”
School Initiative Involving Pupils Portchester Community School

“Staying Safe Days” School Initiative Using 2 days of Activities Where Visiting Experts Explain and Advise
Portchester Community School

The Award was conceived by the late Philip Coutts when he was chairman of HHSEG during the early eighties, and is dedicated in his memory.

The Solent Safety Award is awarded to entries from member companies or individual group members, who demonstrate commitment to the principles of health and safety at work or the highest scoring submission decided by the Adjudicating Panel.

The organisers will accept entries in any form; they may be written; on a poster; a DVD; or other electronic means; or a combination of these.

Entries and Adjudication:

Entries will be adjudicated on and will need to demonstrate:

Content, Relevance and Practicality

The ability for the submission to be used or developed by others.

The adjudicating panel will also take into account the way in which the entry is presented.

The panel will consist of persons drawn from industry, commerce, the Health and Safety Executive and HHSEG Executive Committee.

Any enquiries regarding the competition should be made to:

Mr Charles Cole

Telephone: 023 9226 3964 or E-mail: peterhewick@talktalk.net

Entries may be submitted at any time before the closing date of Saturday 1 September 2018. The awards will be presented at the Group's Conference at Fasset Langstone Technology Park, Havant in October 2018.

Details will be forwarded to Award Winners.
